

Crossword Fun at the Museum of Antiquities

Read the clues at the bottom of the page as you look through the Museum. When you find the answer, write it in the proper place.

Clues:

Across:

1. The most beautiful goddess of them all. Too bad she can't give you a hug!
2. If you need help figuring things out – go here, not to a translation dictionary.
5. A famous fruit. Who knew a little _____ could start a ten year war?
7. What does the statue of Delphi need to win a race?
9. If you need a love potion, pray to her.

Down:

1. Athena Nike. If Nike means _____, no wonder athletes like to wear it.
3. If the gladiator is supposed to win a battle, he really needs his _____.
4. She was the goddess of crafts and war. The Parthenon was built for her.
6. The Museum has many _____ statues, but only a few originals.
8. "I made Christianity an official religion. Too bad my sculptor couldn't get my features right." Who am I?