

Is the Principalship for You?

Presented by Saskatchewan Educational Leadership Unit

Friday, March 30th, 2012

This seminar will provide teachers with the opportunity to gain an insight into the role of the principal and will lead them through activities designed to help them decide if the principalship is for them.

Participants will:

- hear from school and system leaders about what their job is really like;
- complete a self-audit to assist in determining compatibility with the role of principal;
- be provided with information about what employers look for in hiring principals; and,
- explore the preparation and experiences that will assist them in making an effective transition to in-school administration.

Time will be provided throughout the seminar for meaningful discussion of pertinent current issues related to the principalship.
