

Instructional Skills I For Graduate Students

Simply completing this form does not earn you a space or register you in this course. Applicants are admitted on a first come, first served basis. Successful applicants will be contacted via email. Other applicants will be contacted to determine whether they want to be added to a waiting list. Only students committed to attending each class, to completing two micro-teaching lessons, to completing the readings, and to completing all assignments, are asked to apply as space in the course is limited.
