

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN

DIRECTOR, SCHOOL OF PHYSICAL THERAPY College of Medicine University of Saskatchewan

Located on one of Canada's most beautiful campuses, the University of Saskatchewan is internationally recognized for its contributions to teaching, scholarship, research and innovation. It is a university on the rise, united through campus-wide integrated planning behind a vision for its future based on international standards, areas of pre-eminence and a sense of place. This is an exciting time for the College of Medicine and the School of Physical Therapy. The University of Saskatchewan Health Sciences Project, currently under construction, will create a new standard for inter-professional teaching and learning, interdisciplinary research, clinical practice and community engagement. This state-of-the-art, integrated facility will support and enable collaboration between students, faculty and researchers in all health science disciplines helping educate health professionals using a team-centred approach.

The School of Physical Therapy provides a healthy and vibrant environment for faculty, staff and students in the Master of Physical Therapy program, the MSc and PhD in Health Sciences program and health professional students in the university and the province. An academic unit within the College of Medicine, the School has experienced unprecedented growth and renewal and is poised to become a national leader in physical therapy education.

The University of Saskatchewan is looking for a dynamic and innovative leader in the field of physical therapy who can work collaboratively within the university and across the profession to advance the School's mission as leader in education and research. Candidates must possess an earned doctorate as well as proven leadership and administrative abilities and a demonstrated record of teaching and scholarly achievement. Must be eligible for registration with the Saskatchewan College of Physical Therapists.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply, however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. The University of Saskatchewan is committed to Employment Equity. Members of designated groups (women, Aboriginal peoples, people with disabilities and visible minorities) are encouraged to apply.

To learn more about this exciting opportunity, call Natasha Knight or Maureen Geldart at The Geldart Group: (604) 926-0005 or forward your application package (current CV, letter of application and reference list) in confidence to info@thegeldartgroup.com

THE GELDART GROUP

Executive Search & Leadership Consulting