

U of S and USFA Finalize Language in Tentative Agreements April 18, 2007

- The University of Saskatchewan and the U of S Faculty Association finalized the language in the two Tentative Collective Bargaining Agreements on April 16, 2007
- The Agreements will now go to a ratification meeting set by the Union for Tuesday, April 24, 2007 and to the University Board Meeting on May 8, 2007
- Posted below this message are the two Memorandums of Agreement, which describes implementation of the new Agreements. A calculator to assist Faculty members in determining an estimated impact on their own personal salary will be available on Friday, April 20, 2007
- In addition, all agreed upon language is also posted for your information