

Note to students:

- As of 3:00 p.m. today, contract negotiations between the University of Saskatchewan and the U of S Faculty Association continue and progress is being made. The University remains optimistic that an agreement can be reached. We will keep students and the campus community informed of developments around bargaining through the University website and PAWS. Please consult the Human Resources link on the University homepage at <http://www.usask.ca> for updates.