

COLLEGE OF LAW

Invites applications for The Ariel F. Sallows Chair of Human Rights

The Sallows Chair will be of interest to outstanding candidates who have made distinguished contributions to the research and/or practice of human rights. Past holders include Penelope Andrews, Marilou McPhedran, Virginia Leary, Paul Mahoney, Shelley Wright, the late Martin Ennals, Rebecca Wallace, Abdullah An-Na'im, Nihal Jayawickrama, Francisco Forrest Martin, and Roy Adams.

Successful candidates for the chair will be in residence within the College of Law and will engage in research and scholarly activities at the College but have reduced teaching responsibilities. Their tenure will normally be for one year, but in any event no longer than two years. Salary will be commensurate with the experience and standing of the holders. The Sallows Chair will commence as early as July 1, 2010.
