

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN

College of Nursing

Have You Ever Considered Graduate School?

Please join us 2009 Information Sessions U of S Graduate Nursing Program

We invite you to a discussion about graduate opportunities in the College of Nursing and how this might fit with your career goals

Information about our programs will be presented as well as application tips for graduate nursing education

- Programs Offered
- ❖ Thesis-based MN
 - ❖ Course-based MN (including nurse practitioner option)
 - ❖ Post graduate Nurse Practitioner certification
 - ❖ PhD

The minimum admission average for a Masters program is 70 percent
(last 60 credits of your BSN degree)

The minimum for the PhD program is 80 percent
(calculated from your MN average)

Please pre-register to attend one of the 1 hour sessions below

September 29 – 1pm
October 1 – 7pm
October 6 – 7pm
October 7 – 9am

We've gone electronic!!

Pre-registration is required to have the correct procedure to login

This allows you to log in to the computer session - from work – or from home

Registration for any of the sessions or any questions:

tammy.morrison@usask.ca or (306) 966-8239