

Continuing Professional Development for Pharmacists

University of Saskatchewan

Information for

Emergency Contraceptive Pills (ECP)

Program Objectives:

- To explain to patients the mechanism of action of EPC in preventing Pregnancy
- To differentiate prevention of pregnancy from termination of pregnancy
- To discuss the essential components of an education session for women requiring or requesting EPC
- To compare the available EPC products with respect to efficacy & safety
- Participants will receive certification to offer EPC after this workshop

To register, download the multi-course registration form on this website.

This program has been approved by CPDP for 3.0 CEUs