

Centennial Alumni of Influence Award Nomination Form

Preamble:

The College of Pharmacy and Nutrition will be celebrating its 100th anniversary in 2013-14. The College's achievements over the past 100 years will be celebrated. There have been 4,500 graduates from the College throughout its history. While all alumni will have made contributions through their endeavours, some have had the opportunity to contribute in outstanding ways. Their impact will take different forms and will vary in scope-from local to provincial to national to international. We are soliciting nominations of influential pharmacy and nutrition* graduates over the last 100 years.

A Centennial Alumni of Influence (AOI) Selection Committee has been struck and will be responsible for the identification of Centennial Alumni of Influence Awardees. Award criteria have been set and a ranking system will be used in determining Awardees. For more information on the Committee, its membership, the terms of reference and the ranking system go to:

Nominations may be accepted from a person, group or organization. The (AOI) Selection Committee may put forward nominations as well.

Based on the award criteria listed below, please explain in no more than 500 words why the alumnus/alumna of the School of Pharmacy, College of Pharmacy, or College of Pharmacy and Nutrition, University of Saskatchewan should be chosen for the Centennial Alumni of Influence Award. Please attach up to three letters of support from others who would be aware of the nominee's accomplishments. The AOI Selection Committee may request further information regarding a nominee. (Please note: The AOI selection committee is not able to consider CVs.)

Please submit your nomination to the College of Pharmacy and Nutrition by no later than October 15, 2013.

- Outstanding leadership (local, national and international);
- Excellence in research, academia and leadership;
- Excellence in professional practice through the improvement of patient care, community pharmacy, hospital pharmacy, private-practice dietetics, hospital dietetics, etc.;
- Dedication to the profession, including mentorship, modelling, or facilitating others' excellence in patient care;

Nominators are encouraged to think broadly regarding what nominees may have done to influence others, such as business, political services, philanthropy, etc.

The Centennial AOI Award recipients will be recognized at an event during the College's Centennial Reunion weekend on June 26-28, 2014. An announcement identifying the recipients will be made in the College of Pharmacy and Nutrition 2014 Alumni Newsletter.
