

New Researcher Award Nomination Form 2010

Presented annually to members of the university research community, the New Researcher Award recognizes members of faculty for significant contributions to knowledge or artistic creativity in their areas of expertise, with an emphasis on work undertaken while employed at the University of Saskatchewan.

Nominee Name and Contact Information

Name of Nominee: _____

Department or Centre: _____

Phone Number: _____ E-mail: _____

Eligibility

Open to all members of the university community who are members of the College of Graduate Studies and Research and who have received their PhD or terminal degree required by their current university position within the last 10 years.

Nominators' Names and Contact Information

Two colleagues are required as nominators. Both must be from the University of Saskatchewan; one must be from outside the academic department or centre of the nominee:

Nominator 1: _____

Department or Centre: _____

Nominator 2: _____

Department or Centre: _____

Required Supporting Documentation

The completed nomination form must be accompanied by the following information (in this order):

- A letter (maximum 5 pages) from the two nominators summarizing the candidate's research achievements and outlining the national or international significance of the candidate's scholarly work
- A minimum of three and a maximum five letters of support from scholars in the candidate's main or cognate field, commenting on the importance and impact of the candidate's work nationally and internationally—At least two of these letters must be from scholars outside of the University of Saskatchewan
- A copy of the nominee's current curriculum vitae in the standardized format required by the University of Saskatchewan

All nomination packages must be double-sided.

Additional information will not be considered by the Selection Committee.

Deadline

Seven separately collated copies of the nomination form and supporting documentation should be submitted to:

Office of the Vice-President Research
c/o Alexandra Foster
Room 201 College Building

Nomination Packages due 26 February 2010