An honorary degree is the highest honour the University can bestow and recognizes individuals who have achieved outstanding accomplishments in research, scholarly and artistic works; performed exceptional public service; contributed greatly through their professional or philanthropic activity; or demonstrated great athletic prowess.

Anyone can be nominated for an honorary degree except for: current members of the Board or Senate; current or recent members of the faculty or staff of the University; current students; current holders of elected office at any level and members of the federal Senate.

All nominations must include the following:

- The names and signatures of three nominators
- A one-page statement (up to 250 words) explaining why the nominee is an exceptional candidate and should be awarded an honorary degree
- A curriculum vitae for the nominee (where possible)
- Letters of support

If you wish to provide additional information please limit this to 15 pages.

Nominations will be accepted throughout the year, but to be considered by the Senate Honorary Degrees Committee, materials must be submitted by January 31st.

Nominators should not inform nominees they are being nominated or are under consideration.

The Senate Honorary Degrees Committee meets annually to review nominations. Nominees chosen by the committee to receive an honorary degree will be recommended to Senate for approval. Wherever practical, degrees will be awarded within three years of their approval by Senate. Nominators will not be notified of the status of those they have nominated and all materials submitted to the Office of the University Secretary will remain confidential.

Please consult the Guidelines for Honorary Degrees document for more information.
