About Student Hearing Boards

Types of Boards

Student Appeals in Academic Matters:

Appeal Board
- established by the Office of the University Secretary
- consists of three members of Council, one of whom is a student. One faculty member of the appeal board shall be named chairperson.

Student Academic Misconduct:

Hearing Board
- established by college

Appeal Board
- established by the Office of the University Secretary
- consists of three members of Council, one of whom is a student (or, in the case of the unavailability of a student member, a student appointed by the USSU or GSA Executive to hear the case). Where the case involves a graduate student, the faculty members on the board should be members of the graduate faculty. One faculty member of the appeal board shall be named chair.

Student Non-Academic Misconduct:

Hearing Board
- established by the Office of the University Secretary
- consists of four members including the Vice-Provost Teaching and Learning as non-voting chair, a member of Senate, a member of Council, and a student member of Senate (or, in the case of the unavailability of a student member, a student appointed by the USSU or GSA Executive to hear the case)

Appeal Board
- established by the Office of the University Secretary
- consists of four members including the Provost as non-voting chair, a member of Senate, a member of Council, and a student member of Senate (or, in the case of the unavailability of a student member, a student appointed by the USSU or GSA Executive to hear the case)