

GUEST SPEAKER

The Right Rev. Mark MacDonald

The Right Rev. Mark MacDonald became the Anglican Church of Canada's first National Indigenous Anglican Bishop in 2007, after serving as bishop of the U.S. Episcopal Diocese of Alaska for 10 years. This was a home-coming of sorts for The Right Rev. MacDonald, who had attended Wycliffe College in Toronto and served as a priest in Mississauga, Ont.

The Right Rev. MacDonald was born on Jan. 15, 1954, the son of Blake and Sue Nell MacDonald. He holds a B.A. in religious studies and psychology from the College of St. Scholastica in Duluth, Minn., an M.A. in divinity from Wycliffe College, and did post-graduate work at Luther-Northwestern Theological Seminary in Minneapolis.

He has had a long and varied ministry, holding positions in Mississauga, Ont., Duluth, Minn., Tomah, Wis., Mauston, Wis., Portland, Ore., and the southeast regional mission of the Diocese of Navajoland. Immediately prior to his ordination to the episcopate, The Right Rev. MacDonald was canon missionary for training in the Diocese of Minnesota and vicar of St. Antipas' Church, Redby, Minn., and St. John-in-the-Wilderness Church, Red Lake, Red Lake Nation, Minn. He is the board chair for Church Innovations, Inc., and a third order Franciscan.

Bishop MacDonald and his wife Virginia have three children.
